

Profile

Hello! I'm Mausoomi Roy and I'm a pre-final year student currently pursuing my Bachelor degree in Computer Science and Engineering.

I've gained expertise in a number of programming languages, including C, C++, Python, JavaScript, HTML, CSS, React JS, etc., and skills in communication, teamwork, and other technical areas. As a constant learner, I look forward to securing opportunities that will provide me with new perspectives, allowing me to become better at what I do. I appreciate you taking the time to check out my portfolio. Don't hesitate to contact me !

Portfolio Website,

Personal portfolio using React JS

2022

My take on responsive React portfolio website from scratch using Tailwind CSS and deploying it to server. While making this I worked with JavaScript, React, and Tailwind. I learnt a lot of amazing things including tailwind, smooth scroll, adding social icons, custom fonts, gradient background, and responsive design. For deploying my project I used Netlify.
